Are YOU Interested in Going to College?

Are you a junior in high school or a parent of a junior in high school?

If so, please plan on attending this night.

Date: Wednesday, April 27th

Time: 6:00 – 8:00pm

Who: High School Juniors and Parents

Location: LHS Gymnasium

For more Information about this night,, please see our LHS Counseling: Post-Graduate Moodle page.

During our Beyond Legend Night, we will be providing four different informational and resource sessions on the admissions, application, high school preparation, college essay, and Naviance process. College admission representatives from both a public and private university will be speaking about the benefits and differences of their programs and providing you up to date and tailored information about the college admission process. We will also have an expert providing information on how to prepare and write college admissions essay. Our post-graduate specialist will also be holding a workshop for parents who want help in utilizing Naviance and our post-graduate Moodle page.

We look forward to seeing you there!!
